Proudly presents

1st National Conference on Finance, 2010
18th September 2010

“India’s Financial Sector: Changing Dimensions and Emerging Trends”

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The aim of the conference is to create awareness among the people about current Position of “FINANCIAL SECTOR” in India

Keeping in view both the contemporary relevance and fundamental importance of issues relating to the financial sector. The global financial crisis which is still underway has replaced assertions of what is the right model of financial sector and has imparted great uncertainty to what it should ideally be. Most countries, especially those who were leading the way for others like U.S.A, U.K, and Europe have embarked on a mission to reform their financial sector, while a group of 20 of leading countries of the world is attempting coordination of policies at global level. In this scenario of heightened uncertainty and simultaneous search for optimal models of financial sector, in global community and at national levels, it is useful to look at where we in India stand and what we should be doing or not doing.
